

The New Northwest.

PORTLAND, OREGON, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1880

LOCAL EPITOME.

Hon. J. H. Mitchell has gone to Washington City.

Wood, at No. 143 First street is "the" hatter of Portland.

Mrs. G. J. Ross is President of the East Portland Blue Ribbon Club.

The Portland Hancock Club has resolved itself into a social organization.

Mr. J. H. Woodward has been re-elected City Attorney of East Portland.

Mrs. Litt, at the Third-street Sift House, does only first-class dress-making.

Mr. Julius Sorensen has established the Pioneer Wood-yard at the foot of E street.

The Annual State Convention of the Christian church is now in session in this city.

Effort E., nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Arnold, died Monday of scarlet fever.

The Unitarian Sunday School Fair will be held to-morrow evening and Saturday afternoon.

Master Clyde Dunaway is suffering a severe sprain of the right arm, occasioned by a fall.

Every attendant at New Market Theater to-night will receive a prize—positively no blanks.

Archibald Seghers will lecture in Astoria on the 19th instant for the benefit of St. Mary's Hospital.

Some uneasiness is felt in this city lest the steamships should bring small-pox from San Francisco.

Miss Mary Sifers, daughter of Hon. J. B. Sifers of Josephine county, died in Jacksonville on the 6th instant.

The Portland Seamen's Friend Society offers $50 as a prize for the best plan for a Mariner's Home in this city.

Owing to the superior finish and excellence of work, Abell stands preeminent as a photographer. Give him a call.

Mrs. Wass, No. 64 Morrison street, has a full supply of Demorest's reliable patterns. Send stamp for catalogue.

To-morrow evening, at New Market Theater, the Melville opera company will inaugurate a season of two weeks.

A new pipe organ has been contracted for by the Taylor-street Church, to be placed in position before the 1st of next February.

The members of George Wright Post, G. A. R., gave another pleasant social last evening. On the 24th they will give an entertainment.

An up-town Democratic grocer has taken his horse and delivery wagon from a livery stable because its proprietor is a Republican.

Rev. Father McCormick, brother of Hon. S. J. McCormick, died in St. Vincent's Hospital on Monday afternoon of a long and painful illness.

County Clerk Baughwick has turned over to Sheriff Buchtel for auction the tax roll of Multnomah county, amounting to $23,351.55.

The finest hats in Portland, and at the most reasonable prices, may be found at Wood's elegant store, on First street, in Old Fellows' Temple.

Sugar-coated popcorn (large doll with every gross), wholesale and retail, at Post Office Candy Store, in new building opposite the post office.

Two "gentlemen" of the sporting fraternity pleaded guilty in the Circuit Court to the charge of gambling, and were fined $50 each on two counts.

Some articles of silverware, left in the Presbyterian Church on Tuesday night after the social, were missing next morning, and probably were stolen.

Broken candy is 20 cents, raised candy 25 cents, and fancy mixed 40 cents a pound, at the Post Office Candy Store, in new building opposite the post office.

Domestic bliss is surely the desired end of all mortals. Enjoy it by using Funder's Oregon Flood Purifier, which will remove all superfluous bile and make everybody smile.

A full stock of Butterick's celebrated patterns has just been received at No. 64 Morrison street. Any one sending a stamp will receive a catalogue. Particular attention given to stamping.

Rev. A. S. Coats, who recently resigned the pastorate of the First Baptist Church of this city, is now en route to Rochester, N. Y., to accept the chair of eloquence and sacred rhetoric in the theological seminary of that city.

The mails which were taken from the stage by robbers in the Siskiyou Mountains on the night of September 15th have been mostly recovered, as the highwaymen took nothing that would arouse suspicion if found on their persons.

The strictest attention is given to country orders at the Post Office Candy Store, in the new building, corner Fifth and Morrison streets, where there is the largest and finest variety of candies in Portland. The proprietor asks a trial.

To-morrow evening the Republicans of Multnomah will hold a ratification over the National victory. There will be a parade, speaking at the Court House, music by bands and glee clubs, fireworks, and an "old-fashioned love feast."

It was heart-rending to see with what pitiful and mournful faces the Democrats on Saturday night pulled down the pictures, transparencies and banners that graced the hall on the corner of First and Stark streets during the campaign.

On last Friday night, three highwaymen stopped a teamster on the Red House road and demanded his money. He had none, and they dashed the articles in his wagon, consisting of a stove and some household furniture, to punish him for his poverty.

Last Friday Eugene City was visited by a disastrous fire, which destroyed the Astor House, O. A. Lockwood's store, Mrs. Goodchild's store, B. C. Pennington's meat market, Rankin & Ellison's photographic gallery, the Guard building, J. J. Walton's law office, and other property. Loss, $20,000; insured, about $5,000.

Persons who desire first-class staple or fancy groceries at low prices can be accommodated by J. W. Bailey, No. 47 Yamhill street, whose stock is large and fresh. He gives prompt attention to orders from the country, and does a commission business in groceries and all products of the farm. Goods are delivered to patrons promptly.

Mr. Shanahan, of the unknown music and artarrison to Third street, between Alder and Morrison. He is agent for the Decker, Fischer and Emerson & Dunham pianos and the Clough & Warren and Palace organs, which will be sold on installments of $5 or $10 per month. See his advertisement under "New This Week."

Prof. E. C. Taylor, the magician, has been greeted with crowded houses at New Market Theater since his opening night. His entertainments have uniformly given satisfaction, many of his tricks being entirely new. In particular, the magic growth of flowers and the Turkish box mystery are puzzling and highly appreciated. Mlle. La Grande, who assists him, is very clever. Her "egg dance"—accomplished while she is blindfolded, among eggs lying over the stage—is wonderful, as it displays a surprising power of remembering positions and calculating distances. The presents given away nightly comprise many useful and valuable articles, as well as money. The reception accorded Professor Taylor shows that a good entertainment will be well supported when prices are placed at figures to suit the times. His last performance will be given to-night.

A Cough, Cold or Sore Throat

Should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an incurable Lung Disease or Consumption. Brown's Bronchial Troches are certain to give relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, Catarrh, Consumption and Throat Diseases. For thirty years the Troches have been recommended by physicians, and always give perfect satisfaction. They are not new or untried, but having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. Public speakers and singers use them to clear and strengthen the voice. Sold at twenty-five cents a box everywhere.

The idea has frequently been advanced that General Grant's part in the recent campaign was actuated by the understanding that General Garfield would favor the "third term" in 1884. To set at rest the idea, the Philadelphia American, edited by Wharton Barker, an intimate friend of the President-elect, announces that General Garfield will be his own candidate for reelection.

At Milan there is a cremation furnace in the cemetery, and it is so well patronized that the question of disposing of the ashes recently came up. It was decided to erect a cinerary temple in which to place the ashes of the dead. The remains will be deposited in labeled jars and placed on shelves in the temple, like rows of jam and preserves in the kitchen pantry.

Mrs. J. B. Wilson, of Tiffin, Ohio, says: "I have worn an Improved Excelsior Kidney Pad, and received more relief than from all remedies I have ever tried. I cheerfully recommend it to all sufferers. See adv."

The man who gets maddest at a newspaper squib is usually the fellow who borrows the paper he reads it out of.

Young women often keep their lovers by tears. "Yes," says Grimwig, "love, like beer, is preserved by brine."

A promising young horse in South Boston has been named Dr. Tanner, in hopes that it will make him fast.
